

2017 History GCSE:

A one day course on planning and teaching 9-1 GCSE for maximum impact

This course will ensure that you are fully prepared to plan, teach and assess 9-1 GCSE History to maximize impact.

You will learn:

- ✓ How to effectively meet the demands of a linear exam which covers more content.
- ✓ Innovative teaching strategies to secure deep historical knowledge.
- ✓ Guiding principles on which to plan your lessons to ensure progress.
- ✓ Clever ideas for revision and re-visiting of knowledge.

You will leave with:

- ✓ An expert understanding of what makes good student answers.
- ✓ Model answers to questions showing you what different pupil responses look like.
- ✓ Approaches to make knowledge stick to ensure that your students are truly prepared for the 100% exam.
- ✓ A host of effective strategies to tackle interpretations questions.
- ✓ Schemes of Work for AQA and Edexcel to allow you to teach many of the new GCSE topics.
- ✓ Two-year planning documents to help shape your course for maximum impact.

- ✓ Fully resourced lesson examples on teaching trickier aspects of the course.
- ✓ Practical ideas on how to inspire and challenge your students.
- ✓ The knowledge and confidence to plan your course over two years for maximum clarity and coherence.
- Examples will be taken from Elizabethan, Germany, America, American West and Cold War units.

When: 5/10/17 Manchester, 12/10/17 Central London.

Time: 9.00am for 9.30 start.

Cost: £269 per delegate. £239 for History Resource Cupboard's Basic members, £189 for Full or School's members (includes course materials, digital documents, tea/coffee, buffet lunch).

To book: email jo@historyresourcecupboard.com
Tel: 07802 467552

Course Leader: Richard McFahn