

2016 History GCSE:

A one day course on planning and teaching the 2016 GCSE for maximum impact

This course will ensure that you are fully prepared to plan, teach and assess 2016 GCSE History to maximize impact.

You will learn:

- ✓ How best to effectively meet the demands of a linear exam which covers more content
- ✓ Effective teaching strategies to secure deep historical knowledge
- ✓ Guiding principles on which to plan your lessons to ensure progress

You will leave with:

- ✓ An expert understanding of what 9-1 grading system looks like in student answers.
- ✓ Model answers to questions showing you what different responses on the 9-1 scale actually look like
- ✓ Approaches to making knowledge stick to ensure that your students are truly prepared for the 100% exam
- ✓ A host of effective approaches to tackle interpretations questions.
- ✓ Schemes of Work for AQA and Edexcel to allow you to teach many of the new GCSE topics
- ✓ Two year planning documents to help shape your course for maximum impact

- ✓ Fully resourced lesson examples on teaching trickier aspects of the course
- ✓ Practical ideas on how to inspire and challenge your students
- ✓ A cupboard full of ideas in terms of planning, teaching and delivering aspects of the new course.
- ✓ The knowledge and confidence to plan your course over two years for maximum clarity and coherence.

When: 3/11/ 16 London, 10/11/16 Manchester

Time: 9.00am for 9.30 start.

Cost: £269 per delegate.

£179 for History Resource Cupboard's Schools or Full members (includes course materials, digital documents, tea/coffee, buffet lunch)

To book: email jo@historyresourcecupboard.com
Tel: 07802 467552

Course Leader: Richard McFahn